

IGF Poland

Źródło: <http://igfen.nask.pl/ien/steering-committee/56,Dariusz-Jemielniak.html>
Wygenerowano: Thursday, 18 January 2018, 20:53

Full Professor of Management at Kozminski University (Poland)

Dariusz Jemielniak is Full Professor of Management at Kozminski University (Poland) where he heads NeRDS (New Research on Digital Societies) group, and faculty associate in Berkman-Klein Center for Internet and Society at Harvard University (USA). He is an author of "Common Knowledge?" (2014, Stanford University Press, winner of Dorothy Lee Award for Outstanding Scholarship in the Ecology of Culture in 2015, and the Chair of the Polish Academy of Sciences academia award in 2016). In 2015 he joined Wikimedia Foundation Board of Trustees. He had annual appointments at Cornell University (2004-2005), Harvard University (2007, 2011-2012, 2015-2016), University of California Berkeley (2008), MIT (2015-2016).

Dariusz Jemielniak - source:
www.jemielniak.org

IGF is the most important discussion forum on Internet Governance issues where key decision are taken and valuable contacts are made. There is no obligation to participate in IGF but this decision condemns you to peripherality.

prof. Dariusz Jemielniak, New Research on Digital Societies, Akademia im. Leona Koźmińskiego