

IGF Poland

<http://igfen.nask.pl/ien/internet-governance-for/speakers/474,Malgorzata-Starczewska-Krzysztosek.html>
2019-05-25, 23:26

Małgorzata Starczewska-Krzysztosek

Lewiatan

PhD in economics, lecturer at the Faculty of Economic Sciences at the University of Warsaw, member of the Coalition Council for Polish Innovation, member of the Scientific Council of the Institute of Innovation and Responsible Development INNOWO, member of the Society of Polish Economists.

In 2018, she was the vice-chairwoman of the working group on education for the development of AI in Poland at MC. Until 2018, she was the chief economist of the Lewiatan Confederation, a member of the Social Dialogue Council (including the budget, pay and social benefits team, the economic policy and labour market team, the strategy for responsible development team) and earlier the Tripartite Social Affairs Committee. Gospodarczych, member of the PARP Family Business Forum, member of the Europe Strategy Team

2020 at the MPiT, member of the ECOFIN Committee and the Entrepreneurship and SME Committee at BusinessEurope.

In 2010-2015, she was a member of the Economic Council with the Prime Minister of the Republic of Poland. In the years 2011-2014 a member of the High Level Group of Administrative Burdens at the EC.

He deals, among others, with research on the conditions of enterprise development, investments, including innovation and R & D, labor market, analysis and assessment of the functioning and development of enterprises, economic analysis of law.

Michał Białek, Wykop.pl

Michał Białek manages the Wykop.pl website, one of the largest social networking sites in Poland, visited by over 8 million users per month.

Wykop.pl was the initiator of the blackout of Polish websites, which was attended by over 2,500 websites and which covered about 60% of the Polish Internet.